when you need us.*

At the Principal Financial Group® (The Principal®), we understand the importance of your employee benefits. From our outstanding customer service to our cutting edge technology, we're committed to making sure you get the most out of your benefit program. We have more than half a century of experience in providing employee benefits, so we know what's important to you...integrity, simplicity and security.

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM THE PRINCIPAL

A member of the Fortune 500, The Principal is a leading global financial institution offering businesses and individuals a wide range of products and services including retirement and investment services, life and health insurance, and mortgage banking. Founded in 1879, Principal Life Insurance Company is the flagship and largest member of the Principal Financial Group.

THE NATIONAL ACCOUNTS DIVISION COMMITMENT

While The Principal may be a large company, the sole purpose of our National Accounts Division is to serve you and your dependents. Because we know how important your employee benefits are to you, our goal is to provide you with:

Outstanding Customer Service – Our customer service staff has the experience and knowledge to accurately respond to your questions and consult with you about your benefits. Although our headquarters are in Iowa, we have approximately 800 employees around the country dedicated to meeting your needs.

Cutting Edge Technology – Our state-of-the-art technology makes doing business with us easy. Our user-friendly Internet site provides you with a wealth of information. You can monitor your claims activity, access a summary of your benefits, and view provider directories. Plus, we are constantly enhancing our Internet capabilities.

Experience and Expertise – We have more than 50 years of experience in providing employee benefits and paying claims. We are a leader and an expert in the employee benefits industry.

Commitment – We continually analyze customer wants and needs and use the information to provide you with quality coverage and valued products and services. Everything we do, we do with you in mind.

Professionalism and Integrity – We strive for excellence in all aspects of our business. The National Accounts Division is excited to help you make the most of your employee benefits.
